FOR YOUR INFORMATION

- Work cannot be older than five years old and not have been exhibited in the Janet Carson gallery in the past two years.
- All work must go through the jury process and must be of professional quality.
- All pieces must be clean and ready for display or they will not be hung or placed. Two-dimensional pieces must be wall-ready and hung with wires. Saw-tooth hangers are unacceptable.
- Artists should include a resume (no formal art training or exhibition record required) and an artist statement.
- Artwork to be juried will be on a CD/DVD or flashdrive as jpegs or PowerPoint formats. Jpegs should be 300 dpi and include a file with names, media, size, and years made of each work. Please label jpegs as follows: last name_title_slide number.jpg (ie jones_tree_01.jpg). PowerPoint slides should be labeled with the above information. Detail photos of work may be included but do not constitute one of the six works.
- If you want materials returned, send a stamped, self-addressed return envelope.
- All work must be for sale. ECRAC's commission on sale of artwork is 30 percent for Regional Arts Center members and 40 percent for non-members.
- If possible, you will be expected to help hang the exhibit.
